The Gospel Goes to Work Stephen R. Graves

From the beginning God has involved humans in the big picture—His work. The most important work in which He has involved us is spreading the gospel of His Son, Jesus Christ. How do we paint, plan, farm, build, teach, lead, or make things as we implement the gospel in every area of our lives? We take the gospel to work. The Gospel Goes to Work gives believers a practical strategy for shining the light of the gospel in any work setting.
